Tragedy Closes Career of Youth Who Had Come West to Be Reformed

E. H. Tucke Drops Five Stories From Window to His Death

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—As the culmination of a somewhat exciting career, an inordinate love for wine, women and song, the breaking of a mother's heart, the testing of a father's affection, and finally a trip West planned by devoted parents in the hope of reform, Edward Hildreth Tucke, son of E. M. Tucke, secretary and treasurer of the Traders & Mechanics Insurance company of Lowell, Mass., accidentally fell to his death while in a semi-intoxicated condition at the Hotel Tallac, 140 Hill street, this morning.

The young man, who was about 26 years of age, had returned to the hotel after a night of revelry in an intoxicated condition at about 3 a. m., had evidently thrown himself upon his bed after removing only his coat and vest, and then staggered to the window at 8 o'clock this morning only to fall out and plunge from the fifth story to the roof of a light well.

FALLS TO INSTANT DEATH.
His legs were broken, and his face smashed to a pulp, death resulting instantly.

The story of the young man's career is one succession of heart breaks for his family, and of reform succeeded by further dissipation on the part of the youth himself. Tucke came from one of the oldest families of Massachusetts. He was educated at St. Paul's school, went to Harvard University, and also took a course at Lincoln-Jeffries University.

He was graduated from St. Paul's June 20, 1907, and, according to custom, was given a testament beautifully engraved. Later he went to law university, and it is apparent that he began to indulge in excesses. He lavished money and jewelry on the beautiful woman whom he evidently intended to marry, and was recently sent west by his family in the hope of reforming. His father writes him in one letter that the efforts to get back the jewelry given to the woman would be worse than useless, and tells of the youth's pressing debts which were coming in.

MOTHER'S LOVE LOST.

"You may sometime expect a letter from your mother," writes the aged parent, "but she has not forgotten what you did and it's up to you to win back her regard again."

Again he writes:

We hope and advise you to live at the Y. M. C. A. It would be better

Two Dynamite Suspects Placed Under Arrest

SAN DIEGO, March 11.—Charged with exploding dynamite in the streets of Ensenada, and suspected of being an agent of the rebel forces, a man believed to be J. H. Dick, who is wanted in Los Angeles on a charge of murder, is in the jail at Ensenada, according to information which reached San Diego last evening. Investigation of the man's record by the police officials at Ensenada leads them to believe he is the man the authorities of Los Angeles have been searching for. A detective will go to Ensenada in an effort to identify the man and if he

'WE'LL ATTACK TIA JUANA TONIGHT,' IS THE MESSAGE SENT BY REBEL LEADER

FEDERALS ARE READY FOR FIGHT

Every Armed Man in Village Is Ordered to Place in the Trenches.

United States Warships Ordered to Patrol Both Coasts of Mexico.

SAN DIEGO, March 11.—"We will attack Tia Juana tonight," was the startling message sent Sub-Perfecto Jose Larroque, in command of the forces at the little Mexican town across the boundary line from San Diego this morning by a filibustering force of Mexicans under the leadership of a half-breed negro, Francisco Salinas.

The force is camped near two camps of workmen in the employ of the San Diego and Arizona Railway, twenty miles east of Tia Juana, and numbers of the workmen, who are Mexicans, have joined the rebel band, which is said to number 140 men.

One rurales, out scouting, has been captured and the band at noon was said to have begun the march to Tia Juana.

This is the band of rebels that was organized near El Cajon, sixteen miles east of San Diego and on the American side of the line. It slipped past the line a week or two ago and since that time little has been heard of it.

Today, like a bolt out of the blue sky, the message was conveyed to Tia Juana that it was to be attacked and in preparation for the assault every man under arms was ordered into the trenches.

The commander of the army patrol at Tia Juana, Cal., has been notified, but until he receives orders his men will remain spectators of the battle that now is believed imminent.

As an inducement to the Mexicans employed on the railroad the rebel leader is said to have offered each man who joined his force $100 in American money and a deed to 100 acres of land.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The gunboat Princeton, now at Panama, will be ordered northward, heading at Acapulco, Mex., and probably at other Mexican points, while the gunboat Yorktown will sail southward shortly from San Diego, Cal., also with orders to stop at several Mexican ports.

These orders, in conjunction with

BIG CLAREMONT HOTEL GOES TO HAVENS

Local Capitalist Said to Have Purchased Spring Holdings This Week.

That the Claremont hotel, which for the last four years has been in course of construction in the Berkeley hills at the head of Russell street and close to the city limits of Oakland, is now about to be completed is the substance of a statement made today.

Frank C. Havens has purchased the 1800 shares of stock formerly held by John H. Spring, thus giving him control of the property, so the story goes. Originally Havens is said to have owned but 175 shares. When he withdrew from the Realty Syndicate, however, in the transfer of holdings formerly owned by F. M. Smith, he acquired 1600 more, representing the original Mason-McDuffie interests and a total of 3575 out of 4300 that were issued.

Although neither Havens nor Spring would confirm the sale this morning, both admitted that it had been under consideration. That the transaction had actually been closed during the last week, was stated, however, by other parties familiar with the situation.

"At the present time I am not prepared to make any statement in regard to the matter," said Havens this morning, "and

Camorra Members Placed on Trial

VITERBO, Italy, March 11.—The trial of the forty-one members of the Neapolitan Camorra, which has terrorized Italy for many years, was begun today. A jury was chosen more readily than had been expected and Cavallero Blinchi, the president of the court, opened the interrogation of the accused. He limited his questions to an inquiry into their personal records.

Prima Donna of Old Kolb and Dill Company Obtains Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—When Hazel Collander, a prima donna of the Kolb & Dill company, obtained a decree of divorce in Judge Graham's court this morning, she was anxious to throw herself in somebody's arms. She looked around for her father, but misjudged the distance for the plunge, and found herself embracing "Bill" Alman, better known as the Mayor of Colma, crying:

"Isn't it grand to be free, father?"

It took but a moment for her to realize her error and the performance was repeated when the paternal actor had been found.

Mrs. Collander charged cruelty against Peter Collander, the husband, on numerous occasions. She is to return to Clarence Kolb's company.

Taft at Same Hotel With Rockefeller

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 11.—President Taft reached Augusta early today for a brief period of rest before returning to Washington. Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft will join the President tomorrow. They will play golf every morning and motor during the afternoon. A private telephone has been connected direct from his room to the White House.

John D. Rockefeller is a fellow guest with the President at the hotel and there is much speculation as to whether or not a golf match might be arranged between the two.

BLOW OPEN CONCORD SAFE

Dynamiters Crack Strong Box as Baker Looks On From Across Street

Coin and Checks Are Taken and Bold Bandits Make Escape in Night

CONCORD, Cal., March 11.—The safe in the big Concord Department Store here was blown open by safe-crackers at 2:30 this morning and $33 in coin and about $100 in checks, drawn on the Bank of Concord and the Union Savings Bank in Oakland, taken. The thieves took time to sort the checks, as only those that were endorsed were removed, others being left scattered about the store.

According to Under Sheriff Veale, who has been detailed on the case, the safe blowing was witnessed by John Lambert, who runs a bakery across the street, and who, though he watched the proceedings, did not report it until the men had made their getaway, declaring that he was fooled in an attempt to telephone the constable by the outside man having cut the big main telephone cable.

PUTS OUT LIGHTS.

Lambert states that one of the men worked inside, while the other stood watch on the outside, throwing rocks at the 50-candle power arc light at the corner. He succeeded in breaking two of the lights, but could not smash the third.

Lambert has twenty boarders sleeping upstairs over his bake shop," said Sheriff Veale, "and it seems strange that he did not rouse any of those men to rout the safe-crackers. It was not until the job was finished that he notified the constable, and then it was too late to capture the men.

WORK OF EXPERTS.

"The work is that of expert crackers, men, as is evidenced by their manner of using nitro glycerine. The safe is a double doored one, and the thieves pried tables about the doors in a V-shape and soaped the left hand door before pouring in the nitro glycerine. Evidently every precaution was taken to deaden the noise, and just enough of the explosive was used to open one of the doors.

"Their description tallies closely with that of the two men who recently blew a safe at Stockton. We believe the men have not yet left Contra Costa county, and as we have a good description of them, we have hopes of capturing them."

The Concord department store which was built six months ago, is owned and operated by A. Greenfield and J. V. Enloe, the latter a former judge of Pinole. Greenfield also owns a department store in Pinole.

The safe-crackers are described as follows: One about 30 years old, five feet 11 inches in height, weighing about 170 pounds, wearing a dark soft hat, dark clothes and a raincoat. The other about 40 years old, wore a mustache and was rather chunky, about 5 feet 9 inches in height and weighing about 180 pounds; wore fairly good clothes and a dark overcoat.

STEAL VELOCIPED.

The robbers broke into a section house at the Southern Pacific station at Avon, about ten miles from Concord, previous to going to cracking the safe. They took out a velocipede and went down the track to Concord. There they cut the telegraph and telephone wires at each side of the station. Finding that the velocipede which they took at Avon did not run easily, it is supposed they broke into the section house at Concord after the wire cutting and obtained another.

After the robbery was accomplished, they escaped in the stolen conveyance, supposedly in the direction of Pleasanton and Livermore. They have several hours' start of the officials.

FIENDISH CRIME IS SEEMINGLY THE DEED OF AN INSANE MAN

John La Franchi, Dairyman of Ignacio, Shot Through Heart, Nephew Slain and Wife Wounded

IGNACIO, Cal., March 11.—John La Franchi, a dairyman, and his 19-year-old nephew, Albertino, were shot and killed and Mrs. Rose La Franchi was shot through the leg early today by a strange Italian to whom they had given lodging over night. The murderer escaped and is now being hunted in the hills to the westward of this place by two posses of armed ranchmen in charge of the sheriff of Marin county.

The murder apparently was entirely unprovoked and of the most wanton character. Mrs. La Franchi, with two bullets in her left leg, dragged herself over half a mile to the nearest neighbor and gave the alarm.

Gave Food and Shelter

She says that late last evening an Italian whose name she did not know applied to her husband for work. They took him in and fed him and fixed a place for him to sleep in the barn. About 4 o'clock this morning she noticed that he was busying himself about the premises and when she and her husband and nephew went out to begin milking the cows she asked him why he was around so early. He replied that he was in the habit of arising early.

Shot Through Heart

Then, according to the woman's story, as her husband drew his stool toward a cow, the lodger fired without warning, shooting La Franchi through the heart.

He then turned the weapon upon the lad Albertino and shot him through the head. As Mrs. La Franchi ran screaming from the barn he fired twice, both bullets taking effect in her left leg.

Fled to the Hills

The murderer then fled across the ranch in the direction of the hills and Mrs. La Franchi, although suffering from loss of blood and great pain, managed to reach a neighbor's house a half mile away.

The son of the house and the hired man started for the La Franchi home and on finding the bodies of the two murdered men they hastened to a telephone and notified the sheriff's office in San Rafael. The sheriff started for the scene and after questioning Mrs. La Franchi and obtaining a description of the murderer organized two posses.

Lynch Law Feared

The posses are composed of ranchmen from the neighborhood and the members are nearly all armed with shotguns. Feeling is high among them and it is believed that the officers of the law will have difficulty in protecting the murderer from summary vengeance if he is caught.

Victim of Snowslide Known to Oaklanders

News has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Mason, who were reported killed in a snowslide, Tuesday night, when the Hydro-Electric Company's plant at Jordan, Mono county, Cal., was destroyed, were well known in Oakland and vicinity. Mrs. Mason was Agnes Thornton before her marriage and was the daughter of Harry and the late Jane Thornton of Los Banos. Mason's mother and sister, Miss Lillian Mason, are now residents of San Francisco, but their addresses are unknown. Mason was the chief electrician in charge of the plant.

Poisoned Candy Kills Boy; 1700 Pupils Are Warned

PATERSON, N. J., March 11.—Seven hundred pupils in the Paterson public schools have been warned by the school authorities to abstain from eating candy until an investigation has determined the cause of the death of William Bider, a pupil of school No. 4. Circumstances indicate that he was poisoned by candy purchased near the school. Within the last month several children attending the school have been compelled to remain at home on account of illness, their symptoms in most cases indicating pneumonia poisoning. Samples of the suspected candy have been seized and it is expected that several arrests will follow.

Mr. Woodward introduced Alexander H. P. Dalton, secretary of the State Tax Association, who addressed the meeting at length, explaining the purposes of the State organization and of the various county organizations and the many benefits to be gained by the organization of the tax association. In the matter of properly safeguarding the interests of the local tax payers the speaker stressed the fact that they could be obtained only by association or affiliation with the tax association of California in its efforts for state wide tax reform.

H. P. Dalton spoke of the necessity of such an organization in Alameda county, and of the great good it could accomplish in the saving of public moneys extravagantly expended.

M'KELWAY SCORES MILL OWNERS OF NATION

Child Labor Horrors Vividly Portrayed in Address Made at Birmingham.

BABES SNATCHED FROM CRADLE TO BEGIN TOIL

Grim Reaper Stands Ever at Elbow to Collect His Toll.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 11.—A most stirring and eloquent plea for the betterment of child labor conditions in the textile industries and a terrible arraignment of mill operators was made by A. J. McKelway, secretary of the National Child Labor Committee, before the members and guests of that organization who are gathered here to attend its sessions. McKelway's address went into the history of child labor from the time the pilgrims first set up textile factories in New England to the present day, and related the uncovering of the conditions of ignorance, oppression and physical and mental degeneration that went hand in hand with that branch of this vast subject—child labor in the textile mills.

McKelway extended his attacks upon the textile interests by stating that in his opinion it was that branch of child labor industries that proved most fatal to operatives within its employ. He pictured vividly the terrible conditions under which little children, many of them scarcely more than babies, were obliged to toil for ten and twelve hours a day. He quoted from the report of government investigators employed by the federal bureau of labor, to ascertain the real conditions of child and women workers of the cotton textile industry and painted in words of vivid eloquence conditions of filthiness, decrepitude, mental and physical degeneration, that held his hearers spellbound by their awfulness.

In taking up the phase of illiteracy among the mill children, McKelway quoted from the conclusions reached in the bureau of labor report:

ILLITERACY GREAT.

"It will be seen by the foregoing table that the highest percentage of illiteracy among the children of cotton mill families was found in Alabama and Virginia. In Alabama out of 145 children under fourteen reporting, 95 or 65.5 per cent, were unable to read or write. Of these, 42 had never attended school and 53 reported an average attendance of 6.5 months. In Virginia 70.4 per cent were unable to read and write and there was an average school attendance of 10.7 months." These children were compelled to work from 6 p. m. to 6 a. m. Child labor conditions were then taken up state by state, and in each instance it was shown that there were flagrant violations of the child labor laws. In many instances disclosing the employment of little tots scarcely more than half a decade old, who were compelled to work for ten or twelve hours a day and were often kept awake by a "sprinkling" of water.

McKelway then went on to say in part:

The long struggle for better child labor conditions in New England was a struggle against the manufacturer. During the last decade they have been the foremost opponents of standard child labor legislation. In Rhode Island our national child labor committee and the state committee forced the raising of the age limit from twelve to fourteen against the solid phalanx of cotton mill owners. In every effort to secure a working day for children in Maine, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts have been met by the protests of the cotton manufacturers. The recent governor of Massachusetts, honoring to the celebrated cotton manufacturing and cotton machinery family, threatened to veto any bill reducing the hours of labor for children in Massachusetts.

HAVE POWERFUL LOBBY.

"There has not been a meeting of the legislature in ten years in North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia or Tennessee in which the cotton mill men have not appeared as a powerful lobby in the legislature resisting every advance in child labor legislation. They frequently when a compromise had been accepted they immediately posed as the successful advocates of child labor reform. It was the cotton mill men in Mississippi, through their agents, who only a score of miles, that fought the enactment of its first child labor law. It was the cotton mill men of New Orleans that resisted most bitterly the enactment of the excellent law which Louisiana has, thanks to the energy and persistence of Miss Jean Gordon. It is the cotton mill men of Texas and Arkansas that have opposed the enactment of a standard child labor law in those states, though the industry is comparatively insignificant.

"So far as the establishment of a standard child labor law, uniform in its requirements, is concerned, it is not too much to say that except for the possibility of a score of miles, that fought the enactment of its first child labor law. It was the cotton mill men of New Orleans that resisted most bitterly the enactment of the excellent law which Louisiana has, thanks to the energy and persistence of Miss Jean Gordon. It is the cotton mill men of Texas and Arkansas that have opposed the enactment of a standard child labor law in those states, though the industry is comparatively insignificant.

They have stuck by you, now you stick by them and give them that promised ride in the automobile which they expect you to win.

THE DANGER LAP.

The last week or ten days may well be called the DANGER LAP, for a misstep on your part now may cause you to lose all the benefit you have gained so far.

The slippery places on the track for candidates are clearly marked. They are first and foremost, DELAY, then CREDULITY, LACK OF CONFIDENCE, LACK OF ENERGY.

Of these the most dangerous is DELAY, because while you are waiting some other contestant may get the subscription which you had considered as good as secured for yourself.

The second slippery spot is CREDULITY. It is as bad as an infectious disease and cripples you as effectually as a stroke of paralysis. If you believe all you hear of the marvelous gains that others have made, it takes the heart out of you, and what you do without putting your heart into it is worth little.

MEAKINS AS DANILLO HEARTILY APPLAUDED

Mabel Wilber Captivates As Sonia; Entire Company Above Ordinary.

Still the theatrical magnet that it has been since it first stormed New York, "The Merry Widow" drew-out all of Oakland that could be squeezed into the Macdonough last night. Standing room was at a premium, which is something worth while to register against a production on which the spotlight has played for four years and more.

The lure of its atmosphere, glamor of its setting, fragrance of its music, the hypnotism of its dance and the crash of its ensembles still have the power to work a spell. There is that in every line and bar of it which lingers long after dawn breaks at Maxims. Many of these on whom Oakland has showered appreciation remain to carry on the story and sing its romance. Miss Mabel Wilber's Sonia, a portrayal that is hers to claim as a creation, is the same light-hearted, pouting Merry Widow that we saw last year. Her personality and her smile, with a voice more than pleasing, and with nimble feet, carried away her audience last night as they have done before.

KNOWS HIS PRINCE.

Charles Meakins is said by a busy press agent to have played Prince Danilo more than 2000 times. Perhaps he is used to the fantastic prince by this time, but not in the least bored by the possibilities that escape him; his smile after a last night's performance of his character is not lost despite that it has become a habit.

Meakins' unaffectedness, his ability from every standpoint, and the note of popularity he strikes were instantly compared by last night's critical audience to the lack of all those displayed last year by George Damerel, who played the prince.

How Damerel came to be selected by the critical Mr. Savage for a part that demands knowledge, and that stage art is Savage's private affair and probably never will be made public. The selection made by the composer, Meakins' smile is all for the part he plays. Damerel smiled at himself.

In short, but it is Oakland saw him. George Damerel was suffering from as severe an attack of exaggerated ego as ever. He was not only a failure, but a failure in the eyes of the audience. He was not only a failure, but a failure in the eyes of the audience. He was not only a failure, but a failure in the eyes of the audience.

DAMEREL HEAVY.

Meakins is graceful, Damerel was heavy. The present Prince Danilo can sing, Damerel had nothing to offer but a husky voice and a few notes. He was not only a failure, but a failure in the eyes of the audience. He was not only a failure, but a failure in the eyes of the audience.

M'MILLAN WEARS AWAY WREATH

Rich Nevada Said to Have Basked in Princess' Smiles While in Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—Whether or not Harry McMillan, the rich and handsome Nevada mining man, engaged to the Princess Abigail Waikanae Kawanakoa, the beautiful widow of the late King David, is a question to which society members are anxiously awaiting a reply.

Yesterday McMillan arrived on the Mongolia from Honolulu and almost before he had stopped down the gangway the news preceded him that there had been aboard during the entire trip much gossip as to the manner in which he received the princess. The princess received McMillan with the warmest of welcomes and the princess's affectionate farewell was further emphasized in many ways, not all enumerated. This news, coupled with the fact that during the last visit of the princess to San Francisco at which time he occupied apartments at the St. Francis, McMillan, then living at the Palace, changed his place of abode in order to be near her, as they were seen constantly together. Then she left for her island home. Some time later McMillan announced that business called him to Hawaii. He went away. Now he has returned accompanied by rumors that during his absence he and the princess were almost inseparable.

WOMAN NAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Sensational Charges Filed Against U. L. May by Wife Who Gets Freedom.

RENO, Nev., March 11.—Mrs. Annie May of Oakland, who made sensational charges against her husband, Walter L. May, a druggist of that place, naming Mrs. A. E. Livingston as co-respondent, was granted a divorce yesterday. Mrs. May offered in evidence several letters which she alleged to have been written to the defendant by the young woman named in the complaint, as well as an affidavit by Glenn May, a brother of Walter, in which definite charges of unfaithfulness were made against the latter. Mrs. May swore that her husband, when confronted with the evidence in her possession, made a full confession.

Judge Moran put the witness through a grilling examination as to her conclusion, but finally granted the decree.

Among the others securing decrees were Mrs. Harriet S. Vandoren of South Orange, N. J., against Reinhardt L. Vandoren, a wealthy real estate man; R. E. Fowles of Berkeley from Addie C. Fowles, and Lena Sneed of Redwood, Cal., from George W. Sneed.

LIFE moves busily on, along interesting lines in the Lenten days. There are really many social dates of which little is said, and one meets friends at dinners, luncheons, bridge, lectures, and suppers after the theater. The same order of things holds true in all the large cities of the world. In New York there are more social dates than usual, since so many affairs this Lent are being planned for "a cause."

For "mi-carème" or mid-lent there are to be more elaborate dates, including tableaux, costume dances, and amateur plays.

Many people both here and in New York, are taking the Lenten season as a time to travel, and out-going steamers are crowded with tourists on their way to Bermuda, to Cuba, or taking the Mediterranean trip, Florida, too, has its full quota of Lenten visitors.

On our coast, also, the early spring travelers this year have been many, though never in the history of the coast has the Pacific presented such rough seas.

There have been anything but jolly times for the tourists, and a stanza from Rudyard Kipling's "Just So Stories" might well express the spirit of the hour:

"When the cabin portholes are dark and green,
Because of the seas outside,
When the ship goes wop (with a wiggle between),
And the steward falls into the soup tureen,
And the trunks begin to slide;
And nurse lies on the floor in a heap,
And mummy tell you to let her sleep,
And you aren't waked or washed or dressed,
Then you'll know (if you haven't guessed),
That you are Fifty North and Forty West."

There are pleasant places for a holiday in these March days than in a big ship on the great ocean, for our placid Pacific has not at all lived up to its reputation in these past weeks.

A wireless from the Manchuria, on which Mrs. Mee's party, which included Rose Kales, sailed last week, reports stormy seas. Miss Elsie Schilling is now on the Atlantic, bound for Genoa, and one hears also of stormy Atlantic seas.

But there are trips not so far away that one may take, when the skies are clearer, as a rest. The Sacramento river trip is growing in great favor. Here one really does rest, for the appointments of these river steamers have been most perfectly planned. The river winds through a most charming section of the State, with orchards stretching quite to the river's bank, and picturesque farms extending all along this lovely water-way. One may remain on the steamer for the return trip, or one may come home on the train. We hear much of the beautiful blue Danube, much of the picturesque, storied Rhine, and of the historic Nile, but flowing in great favor. Many parties have gone into Yosemite valley this winter, and the scenery among the snow-covered mountains is superb. Many parties also have gone up to Truckee for the old-fashioned winter snow activities. Then there is the South, to which we turn as New Yorkers turn to Florida, and Santa Barbara and Coronado have been full of California guests this spring.

Country homes are being everywhere opened, and as soon as the rain is fairly over this year, Californians will begin to take up their residence in the country, for the late spring in California is full of a sweet and exquisite charm.

Many of the country homes have been remodeled this season, for, in order to thoroughly enjoy a country home, one must have it full of guests, and the week-end parties are as delightful to the host and hostess as they are to their friends.

CALIFORNIA COLONY IN NEW YORK.

The California Colony has grown so rapidly in New York, that its social affairs are extensively chronicled. One of the largest receptions of the week was that given at the Waldorf by the National California Club, one of the speakers of the afternoon being Ernest Peixotto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peixotto are now in New York, and Mrs. Peixotto, who was Miss Mollie Hutchinson of this city, is often a very delightful hostess, entertaining many prominent people in New York.

The National California Club is planning to give an old fashioned sewing bee in New York, and the interesting event will take place at the Waldorf.

The Iowa New Yorkers gave a large reception last week, also at the Waldorf, and the speaker of the afternoon was Edwin Markham, the well known author of "The Man With the Hoe." Mr. Markham is very true to old friendships, and many of the latter were formed in our city when he was principal of the Tompkins School.

The Princess Hatzfeldt (Clara Huntington) was recently in New York, where she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Collis P. Huntington. And by the way, Mrs. Huntington's art treasures are beginning to attract the attention not only of New Yorkers, but of the world. In 1889, Collis P. Huntington paid $26,000 for a Meissonier, and since then Mrs. Huntington has made many most valuable additions to her art gallery. One reads in regard to it:

"It is many years since Americans began the work of enriching the art galleries of their native land at the expense of foreign countries. J. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. Jack Gardner, of Boston, Mrs. Collis P. Huntington—these, among the foremost, have time and time again left Europe gasping as they triumphantly bore away with them paintings and other trophies whose former owners, at first loath to sell, were eventually so dazzled by the golden proffers made them as to forget every scruple born of tradition and patriotism. Mrs. Collis P. Huntington gave last year $400,000 for Velasquez's 'The Count of Olivares,' the loss of which deeply pained England, where the great canvas has long been treasured. This picture is now the pride of Mrs. Huntington's collection."

EASTERN BRIDE HAS FRIENDS HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Livingstone sailed for New York last week for an extended wedding trip through Europe. Mrs. Livingstone was formerly Miss Marie Sheedy, known as "the richest girl in Denver." She is the eldest daughter of Dennis Sheedy, one of the best known mining men of the west. The Sheedys are friends of the John Valentines, and the bride was a school friend of Miss Anita Thomson, and of Mrs. McKee Sherrard (Sophie Van Sickle), all of whom went to the Merrill-van Laer School. Many Oakland people met Mrs. Livingstone when she visited her Oakland friends.

The bride's gift from her father was a magnificent rope of pearls, and a beautiful home in New York. The groom comes from one of New York's best known families, and has a fine social position.

A persistent rumor comes from New York of the engagement of I. Townsend Burden, and Miss Florence Sheedy. The Burdens are one of the best known families in America, and one of the wealthiest. The Sheedys have been spending the winter in New York at the Hotel Plaza.

HAMMONDS SOON TO LEAVE FOR ENGLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond are spending the early spring in New York and Washington, their son attending a private school near New York, and their daughter having just made her debut there. Miss Eliza McMullin is having a delightful time in New York as the guest of Miss Hammond. The Hammonds leave for England in the near future, as Mr. Hammond was recently named by President Taft to represent the United States at the coronation of King George.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF MISS BECKETT.

Mrs. William G. Henshaw was the hostess this week at an interesting afternoon, entertaining at Rosecrest in honor of Mrs. Frank Popham Young. Mrs. Young was formerly Miss Lillian A. Beckett, a very charming East Oakland girl, and many of her old friends were among Mrs. Henshaw's guests. About a year ago, Mrs. Young was reported engaged to the Earl of Clancarty, and there was much said of the rumored engagement in London and New York papers.

Lieutenant-Colonel Young and Mrs. Arnold Marcus (Lillian Beckett) were recently married in St. Anne's Chapel, Annapolis, Md. The wedding was a very quiet one, Annapolis having been chosen for the reason that the bride's son, Arnold Marcus, is a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy.

There were present only members of the family, including Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beckett of San Francisco, and the bride's nephews, Garner and Wheeler Beckett.

One reads of this interesting bride, who was such a popular East Oakland girl:

"Mrs. Marcus' first husband was the well known banker of New York, Arnold Marcus, who died four years ago. She has been an extensive traveler, and is much esteemed and admired on both sides of the Atlantic, as well as on the Pacific Coast, where she spent some of her girlhood."

Of Lieutenant Young one reads: "Lieutenant-Colonel Popham Young is an officer in the British Indian army. He has been employed for many years past under the government of the Punjab on political and administrative work, and is now about to return to India to resume his official duties there. He was formerly in charge of the great colonization scheme in Northern India, which has proved so phenomenal a success. His work in this connection was recognized by his being made a Companion of the Indian Empire, the decoration of which order was conferred upon him by the late Queen Victoria in person. His family is well known in English army and social circles. His father is retired from the army, and several brothers are in the service. Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Young will journey to India by way of San Francisco, Japan and China, expecting to arrive at their home in India by the middle of May."

Mrs. William G. Henshaw and Mrs. Young were school girl friends in former East Oakland days, and the friendship has continued through intervening years. Among the guests invited to meet Mrs. Young were other Oakland friends of the guest of honor, among whom were Mrs. Frank C. Havens, Mrs. Edward Hall, Mrs. Florence Henshaw, Miss Grimes and the Misses Farrier.

Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Frank Popham Young who have been at the Hotel Fairmont, sailed on Wednesday on the Chiyu Maru, and their future home will be in Ambala Punjab, India.

ISAACS VISITING ON THE COAST.

Mrs. John D. Isaacs and Miss Lillian Isaacs are spending some days in San Francisco, and popular, Lillian Isaacs is being extensively entertained by her old friends on both sides of the bay. Miss Isaacs was one of the very prettiest girls at the recent Mardi Gras carnival. The Isaacs lived many years on Alice street, but the fortunes of railroad called Mr. Isaacs to Chicago, where the family home has been established.

DR. AND MRS. LATHROP LEAVE FOR THE COAST.

Dr. and Mrs. John Howard Lathrop (Lita Schlessinger) and their little daughter left for the East a few days ago, and they will take up their permanent residence there. Mr. Lathrop, who was one of the most prominent of the Unitarian preachers on this coast, has received an exceedingly desirable Eastern call, and his work will be continued there. Mrs. Lathrop is a most attractive young matron, and as her life has all been passed in Oakland, she leaves here many friends who greatly regret her departure.

MRS. AND MRS. PROCTOR SOON TO LEAVE FOR EAST.

Other young people who are planning to go East in the near future are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Proctor (Flora Macdermot). The Proctors will go to Boston first, and later they are planning a European trip of interest. They will be greatly missed for Mrs. Proctor is the most generous of young matrons. There are always good times planned in the Macdermot home, and one always sees her with young guests at the Palace or the St. Francis. Many young matrons who could make life bright for their young girls are much too selfish to try to do so. Two notable exceptions are Mrs. William Thornton White and Mrs. Frank Hunt Proctor.

Mrs. Proctor's sister, Mrs. Crawford (Mary Macdermot) prefers to live in the East. Since her marriage to Captain Crawford, U. S. A., she has not come to the coast. On his leave of absence they have gone abroad, and one hears that Mrs. Crawford is one of the most stunning American matrons one could meet in either New York or Paris.

MR. AND MRS. TAYLOR ARE IN NEW YORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Taylor (Ruth Woodbury) are spending a very delightful winter in New York, and are at the Hotel Knickerbocker. Miss Dorothy Taylor and Miss Helen Cadmon are also in New York, and they with Mrs. Taylor have been guests at Pelham Manor, a delightful country home near New York City.

NEW MUSICAL ORGANIZATION.

There is a new organization in Oakland which bids fair to come into great prominence and to represent much of interest along lines of culture.

The new association was organized at the home of Mrs. Frederick Stratton and the leaders in the cause were Mrs. Stratton and Mrs. Edwin Garthwaite (Augusta Lowell).

Perhaps the story of this new musical association is best told in a letter written by one of its leading members:

"We organized, you know, for the purpose of showing to an old friend and fellow townsman, Sigmund Beel, that his own people do recognize and appreciate his work, his ability, and the position which he occupies in the musical world. We are very proud to have one of our own 'make good,' and we are pleased to acknowledge in Mr. Beel not only a fine musician, but an accomplished and cultured gentleman."

"We find in talking of our projected concert, that many people wish for an organization to become the outgrowth of this—the association to arrange concerts for our own students who return from abroad, or who are intending to go to Europe. This could be made a fine institution in our growing community by its encouragement to students of music and art. To return to Mr. Beel: He has come back to his own home land, after fifteen years' absence, during which time he has come in contact with the best of the Old World has to give. He was able to take advantage of that and absorb it. Every winter for years, he has given two concerts in London, the mecca of all musicians. Previous to the fifteen years, he had labored industriously and faithfully, and it was then that he made himself known as an unusually fine interpreter of classical music. He gave many fine concerts in San Francisco and Oakland.

"It was in Mr. Beel's fine work in ensemble playing, in sonatas, trios, quartets, years ago that he made a lasting impression, and there are many here now who look back on it as a great privilege to have studied and played those works with him. He formed an ensemble club here in Oakland in which many well known musicians took part—Mrs. Alice Lee Stratton, Mrs. Bessie Wall Cheyney, Mrs. Harriet Hale Crafts, Mrs. Kate Brown Potter, Mrs. Helen Hagar Moore, the Collins girls, and a number of others.

"In the few weeks of his stay here, many ardent lovers of music are studying hard, digging into the intricacies of Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, Brahms, Strauss. Among the students with Mr. Beel are Mrs. W. S. Noyes, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Edwin Garthwaite, Miss Virginia de Fremery, Miss Jennie Tuttle, Miss Edith Kelley.

"So all these things are very good reasons why Oaklanders should rise up and come forth and pay a bit of a tribute to one of her children, who has developed so broadly as a musician and has won for himself a place probably second to none in the musical world in London.

"Now, you see, I have given you the raison d'être of this coming concert, and I only hope I haven't bored you to tears!"

The officers of the new association are: President, Mrs. Edwin Garthwaite; Vice-President, Mrs. Frederick Stratton; Secretary, Miss Edith Allen; Auditor, Miss Edith Gera Kelley.

The Council is made up of the following well known women:

Mrs. H. C. Capwell	Madame Neustadt
Mrs. John Hoyt	Mrs. Mannheim
Mrs. W. E. Sharon	Miss Jennie Tuttle
Mrs. Stewart	Miss Virginia de Fremery
Mrs. W. S. Noyes

The patronesses of the coming concert in honor of Mr. Beel are:

Mrs. Frank Havens	Mrs. Langstroth
Mrs. Mark L. Requa	Mrs. Mannheim
Mrs. Edwin Garthwaite	Mrs. Arthur Moore
Mrs. Clinton Day	Mrs. Julien Mathieu
Mrs. E. N. Ewert	Mrs. Edward Frather

Mrs. H. C. Capwell	Mrs. Arthur Thomson
Miss Virginia de Fremery	Miss Jennie Tuttle
Mrs. John Hoyt	Mrs. Wehe
Miss Lucy Herrick	Mrs. Burt S. Hubbard
Mrs. W. O. Little	Miss Newell

CRELLINS TO LEAVE FOR THE EAST.

Mrs. Thomas Crellin, Mr. Lloyd Crellin, with the Misses Mona and Jane Crellin will leave for the East next month, planning to sail for Europe the middle of April.

Miss Alice Knowles will accompany them, and will spend the summer abroad.

The Crellins have traveled extensively in Europe, and they know how to plan an itinerary of more than the usual degree of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hook are planning to close their Piedmont home this year, and they will also be among the travelers who plan to spend the summer abroad.

Miss Mona Crellin was a luncheon hostess of the week, entertaining in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Tellen of New York.

Mrs. Tellen was formerly Miss Ella Morgan, of San Francisco, one of the very popular girls across the bay. Miss Crellin included in her luncheon guests the young people who were friends of Mrs. Tellen, when her home was on this coast.

MRS. HEARST AS HOSTESS.

Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst was the hostess last evening at one of the largest and most important receptions of the winter, entertaining over 500 friends in Century Hall across the bay. Mrs. Hearst's cards of invitation announced "music," and she is so musical herself that they anticipated a program of unusual interest. And so it proved, for the program was rendered by Mr. Sigmund Beel, the distinguished artist, who has won such laurels in the art centers of Europe.

At half after eight Century Hall was crowded with one of the most representative audiences San Francisco has seen this year, and also one of the most appreciative. It was an audience that understood the full value of the pleasure Mrs. Hearst had planned for them and that enjoyed to the fullest extent the superb and wonderful playing of Mr. Sigmund Beel. The latter has given many concerts abroad, and in London every season his musical recitals in the homes of distinguished people are a feature of the London season. In consequence he knows how to arrange a program of rare and wonderful interest, and the recital last night, which lasted for an hour and a half, held the audience in a spellbound.

Mr. Beel's program was as follows: Sonata for violin and piano in D Major, op. 12, No. 1. Beethoven (1770-1827). Allegro con brio—Tema con variazioni—

Rondo-Allegro. Bach (1685-1750). Gavotte. Rameau (1683-1764). Andantino. Padre Martini (1709-1784). Tambourin. Lecale (1697-1794). Prelude and Allegro. Eugène-Kreisler (1871-1938). In E-flat major. Debussy. Two old Viennese Dances—"Schon Rosmarin," "Liedesfreud." Arranged by F. Kreisler. Two Irish Airs—"Rich and Rare," "The Flax." Arranged by M. Beethoven. The Zephyr. Debussy. Haydn.

Each number was greeted with enthusiastic applause by the large audience and at the conclusion of the program there was an ovation to the artist that was as sincere as it was spontaneous. The program was most exquisitely given—it was music at its best—beautiful, noble, uplifting, inspiring. It was a most unusual evening and one which gave rare pleasure to Mrs. Hearst's many guests.

At the close of the program there was a reception, which represented one of the most brilliant social scenes of the winter. Century Hall was most beautifully decorated in honor of the recital.

Mrs. Hearst made a charming picture in the artistic drawing room of the club, in which she received her guests. The picturesque drawing room was a lovely study in American beauty roses, exquisitely arranged. Mrs. Hearst wore an exceedingly handsome gown of satin in soft pearl gray tones, the gown trimmed in the rarest and most exquisite lace. Mrs. Hearst is one of the sweetest of hostesses—her great pleasure being to make other people happy—and she was a lovely study as, in her own gracious fashion, she received the thanks and greetings of her friends.

Mrs. Hearst is a woman of such wide culture, one who has traveled so far, who has known the best that art and music have to offer, that she is able to appreciate artistic excellence. No one on the coast has done so much for artists as has Mrs. Hearst. She has, of course, in her wonderful museum some of the rarest art treasures of the world, but she has done more than that. She has encouraged artists, she has helped them when she could, and the world will never know how much it owes to Mrs. Hearst's splendid generosity, to her noble appreciation of the highest artistic ideals.

To help human souls to achieve their ambitions, that, indeed, is a work of true and generous nobility. It is no wonder that not only in California, but in America, Mrs. Hearst is loved and honored.

Her many guests of last evening will long remember Mr. Beel's signal triumph—his wonderful playing. They are glad the appreciation came to him in his own home city, and they thank Mrs. Hearst for that and for the rare pleasure of a most delightful evening.

At Mrs. Hearst's reception there were seen some of the most beautiful gowns of the season. The costumes were in many cases elaborate and very effective. Among the guests invited from our side of the bay were Mrs. Isaac Requa, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Havens, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Connors, Mrs. John F. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Magee, Mr. and Mrs. William A. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. William Bull Pringle, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clark, Miss Mollie Connors, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Clark, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Thomson, Miss Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Keeler, Mr. Monroe, Mrs. McLaughlin, Donald McLaughlin, Dalliba Thomson, Miss Egan.

There is, of course, always a large representation from the University of California, for Mrs. Hearst is a well-beloved regent and the university owes much to her efforts.

Among the interesting dates of the week was the sewing bee given at the home of Judge and Mrs. S. P. Hall on Fourteenth street, on Tuesday afternoon. The Halls have one of the most charming of homes, with that atmosphere which a large family gives to a home. The girls of the household are very popular, and they love to entertain their friends, and one always finds guests in Mrs. Hall's home.

The sewing bee was greatly enjoyed by the young people, and among the guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. Thomas H. Williams, Miss Muriel Steele, Mrs. Whipple Hall and Miss Grace Laybance.

Fair Japanese Hopes to Reform Dentistry

LONDON.—If I had started out to see Mrs. Laporte with that terrible "all-over-the-face" feeling that invariably accompanies a professional visit to the dentist, her smiling face and the entire absence of the usual dentist's surroundings would have dispelled it, to say nothing of the novelty of seeing before me a little Japanese lady, dressed in the quaint costume of chrysanthemum and blue. But I went only to hear her talk, for a Japanese woman dentist might almost be called "new under the sun," and certainly she is the newest thing in London, where she has just hung out her shingle and begun to practice.

If Mrs. Laporte—The French name has been adopted as easier for English tongues—felt any disappointment at being confronted with a newspaper man instead of a patient you couldn't have told it by her manner. She smiled when I told my errand, and continued to smile throughout.

STUDIED FIRST IN JAPAN.

"Where did you study dentistry?" I asked.

"First in Japan. When I was young I always suffered much with my teeth. I went to lots of dentists; they gave me much pain, and I was sorry. So I learned for a year or two in Tokyo, and afterwards I came to Paris. Here I met a clever French dentist; he also was kind, for although he did not teach other people, he allowed me to study with him, and gave me as much of his time as his large practice permitted. Then after a year with him he gave me a certificate, and after a little while I came over here."

"And do you take all sorts of patients, men as well as women?"

"Yes, but I like the women best. I am more at home with them. I like 'baby' too, but 'baby' sometimes is much afraid. Sometimes my clients say my hands are not strong enough, but I think the men are too strong. I don't use force; I use my hands gently, and am careful not to injure the gums or the jaw."

"Do you find that English people have good teeth on the whole?"

"Yes, pretty good, but they spoil their teeth by eating so much meat. Meat is bad for the teeth."

PAYS THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS TO MURDER SPOUSE

PLYMOUTH, Mass.—"My head told me to have him killed. I paid $35 and had him killed." That is what Mrs. Accusa De Legarto of Boston testified today her sister, Mrs. Lena Cusumano, said to her when they were discussing the disappearance of Mrs. Cusumano's husband, Frank, for whose murder she is now on trial.

"Are you sure he is dead? Aren't they fooling you?" the sister asked. The reply of Mrs. Cusumano as given by the witness was:

"I saw it done with my own eyes. They gave it to him—one blow in the neck with the axe."

"Where is he buried?" the sister said.

"He isn't buried, but wrapped in a quilt tied with wire and thrown into the sea at 3 o'clock at night," Mrs. Cusumano is said to have replied.

The witness said that a few days later she read of the finding of the body in the surf at Hull under conditions exactly similar to those which had been described by her sister.

When the afternoon session of the trial opened, Accusa Cusumano, the 9-year-old daughter of Mrs. Cusumano, who had broken down while testifying against her mother in the morning, was on the stand for continued cross-examination. She told practically the same story she had told in direct examination.

LOVE'S HOPE TO WIN WIFE BACK BLIGHTED BY DIVORCE

Young plunger and his wife, who sues for divorce from him.

MRS. SYDNEY C. LOVE

NEW YORK, March 11.—Mrs. Sydney C. Love, whom Sir Philip Burnes-Jones, the esthetic English artist, called "the most beautiful woman in America," has begun suit for divorce in the Westchester county courts. Her husband is Sidney C. Love, skyscraper financier, clubman and polo player. They have a child about two and a half years old now.

Mr. Love, who has recouped his fortunes, his friends say, is somewhere in the Far West. The papers filed by Mrs. Love state that since their separation he has lived at Seattle, Wash.; Baker City, Ore., and Unity, Ore.

Mrs. Love says further in her complaint, filed in the Westchester county clerk's office, that she married Mr. Love in October, 1907, and they lived together until March 17, 1909. She has not seen her husband since August, 1909. So Supreme Court Justice Mills, at Mount Vernon, signed an order yesterday directing the service of his wife's summons and complaint on Mr. Love by publication in two newspapers.

New York society in which the Loves were prominent, was astonished by a telegram from London in October, 1909. It told that Mrs. C. C. Burnes of Chicago, Mrs. Love's mother, had appealed to Ambassador Whitelaw Reid to protect her daughter from Mr. Love, who, she said, "was making life unbearable for her."

"He is trying to steal her baby," said Mrs. Burnes, "and my daughter is almost distracted."

The ambassador could not interfere directly, but he found a small and exclusive hotel for Mrs. Love, her baby and her mother. Then a guard was set around the baby.

Returning to America Mr. Love announced in Chicago that he was going on a new quest for riches and added in a public statement:

"As to the stories of domestic trouble Mr. Love has nothing to say to the public except that he does not believe his wife will ever state to anyone that he has ever been anything but kind and considerate to her and her child."

"As to the story that any trouble

Divorce Necessary Evil, Declares This Educator

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 9.—Rev. Dr. Henry S. Nash, professor in the Episcopal Theological School of Cambridge, believes conditions regarding the sacredness of matrimony have come to such a deplorable state that stricter marriage laws are a necessity, and that divorce, although a necessary evil, should be made harder to obtain.

Illustrating his point on the easy manner of obtaining divorces and the inconsequential methods of entering wedlock, Dr. Nash cites the Eames-Goggin case, the Gould-Doles wedding, the Chandler-Vaillart incident and the Vanderbilt-McKell arrangement, all of which he denounced. He says:

"A necessary factor in the solution of such marriage problems is divorce. Divorce is an institution wherein this country excels European countries."

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

MRS. ROOSEVELT 'DOES' CHICAGO IN 5 HOURS

Visits Hull House and Sees Attractions of City During Afternoon.

CHICAGO, March 11.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt spent an afternoon between trains in Chicago yesterday. During the five hours she was in the city, Mrs. Roosevelt saw as much as she could of Chicago in a three-hour automobile trip. She had to rush through the city to catch the Golden State Limited for the west at 8 o'clock. She arrived on the twentieth century train, accompanied by Miss Ethel Robinson and Miss Caroline Robinson, and the party started for the west side to inspect Hull House. Miss Jane Addams took them through all its branches. Mrs. Roosevelt was astonished at the scope of the work.

Over in the Mary Crane nursery, the wife of the former president fell in love with 6-months-old Paul Strousky. When she leaned over his crib he cooed and shook his hands at her. Mrs. Roosevelt took him in her arms.

Down on the playground Miss Ethel was attracted by the childish beauty of Helen Marston, and held the little girl for a while. Before leaving Miss Ethel left a large bunch of violets for the children.

Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter are going to San Francisco to visit Theodore Jr. and his wife. The junior Roosevelt is employed in a wholesale carpet house there. "He is making good," his mother declared.

Miss Ethel will participate in the exercises at the formal opening of the Salt River valley irrigation project, which was begun under her father's administration. She will open the celebration through which the first water will flow to nourish the desert.

Eva Taaffe in Need

NEW YORK, March 11.—One of the guests at the municipal lodging-house is a woman who said she was Eva Taaffe, pianist and singer, owner of property in San Francisco but penniless and unable to communicate with her relatives.

Superintendent Yorke says she told him that on arriving in New York from Constantinople, where she sang three weeks ago for the Sultan, she went to a hotel, but the $35 she had was soon spent, he said.

Miss Taaffe asserted that she was a classmate of Virginia Fair, now Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt Jr., at the Denman School in San Francisco.

She claimed she later was to Mercedes Kiedir Bay, at Constantinople, whom she claimed she is soon to marry. The other was to Milton H. Cook of Chicago, whom, she says, is her cousin.

Expose Slayer's Misery

ALBANY, N. Y., March 11.—The miseries of Mrs. Edith Melber were told by her hostile relatives at yesterday afternoon's session of her trial on the charge of murdering her 5-year-old son George by giving him carbolic acid.

Miss May Smith, a cousin of Mrs. Melber's dead husband and Mrs. Margaret Smith, his aunt, testified that Mrs. Melber had lived with her husband in the Schenectady court, a rooming house where he died of consumption; that her child was born there and that no aid was ever given the stricken family.

Miss Smith said that Mrs. Melber, when she left her home, was in Schenectady on the day before the alleged murder, told them that they need not be surprised if they heard that she had committed suicide.

Mrs. Melber sat unmoved while women all about her cried as Chief of Police Quigley of Rochester retold her confession.

At each place was a favor containing a puzzle, which when solved proved to be two hearts each bearing the names of the young people.

Don't Say Boo to Body

CHICAGO.—Do you say "boo" to your body? Well, you mustn't, for Dr. Lena Kellogg Sadler, who has made an exhaustive study of child life, told the women's club of La Grange last night that many a murderer, burglar and highway robber has been made in this manner.

Doctor Sadler declared that the mother who instilled into the mind of her child the "fear thought" through threats of the bogey man, the dark and all the other time-honored monsters of childhood, might some day find herself the mother of a murderer.

"The child over whom the thought of fear is held continually becomes a coward. When he reaches the age where his timidity becomes noticeable, he is told he is a coward. By the time he is a man he is a coward. Statistics have proved that many a man has turned murderer, robber or thief simply to prove to a world that he is not a coward."

Doctor Sadler outlined the power of suggestion in the training of the child. As the wife learns that the most propitious time to secure favors from her husband is when he is joyous, Doctor Sadler declared, so also the mother learns that the power of suggestion to the child is strongest when it is happy from play or when at bedtime it is tucked into its bed and ready for sleep.

THIS IS THE TIME FOR THE SOCIAL SEWING BEE

Lent is eminently the time for the social sewing bee, and one hears that in the East it has come greatly into favor, and is welcomed as a rest from too strenuous bridge playing. The women of the Vincennes Society have planned a series of sewing bees this year, which have already proven to be delightful affairs. One of them was held recently at the home of Mrs. James McElroy (Alice Dunn) and the afternoon was along most enjoyable lines. The Vincennes Society was organized by Mrs. J. M. Driscoll and the late Mrs. Henry Butters, and among its most enthusiastic supporters have been Mrs. R. A. Bray and Miss Delphine Cairns.

The members of the society are now planning for a bazaar to be given early in the winter, thereby offering a sale for the beautiful handwork, the result of the many sewing bees of the season. Mrs. John Francis Smith was a hostess of the week, entertaining the members of the Vincennes Society yesterday afternoon at her home in Piedmont.

BOY SCOUTS TO BE REORGANIZED

Members to Withdraw From California Branch and Enter National Organization.

The Boy Scouts of Oakland held a meeting Thursday night to consider the future plans of the organization. The members determined to withdraw from the California Boy Scouts and to apply for a charter from the Boy Scouts of America, of which Ernest Thompson Seton is one of the foremost men. The meeting was attended by several prominent men, among whom were J. W. McClymonds, city superintendent of schools; Judge George Samuel, E. L. Vanden Nallier, Jr., A. J. Case, E. L. Finley, L. N. Bransford and C. E. Bull. George Dickie, secretary of the playground commission, was president of the now defunct organization and is also at the head of the new club. J. W. Griffin is secretary.

A general meeting has been called for Tuesday, April 4, at 8 p. m., in the meeting room of the playground commission, city hall annex, when it is hoped to reassemble all the members of the earlier organization, something like 400 boys.

Improvement Clubs to Use Initiative in Enforcing Reduction by City Council

HEATED DISCUSSION ENLIVENS THE SESSION

Committee Endorses the Wolfe Consolidation Bill and Asks New Senatorial District.

BERKELEY, March 11.—Resolutions demanding a reduction of water rates to a minimum of $1 instead of $1.50 as at present; a reduction in electric lighting current from 9 to 7 cents a kilowatt; a flat rate of $100 a month for water; and favoring initiating proceedings to compel the city council to adopt an ordinance enforcing the reductions, were passed by the city board of directors. The improvement clubs at a meeting held last night in the high school building.

The board of directors met last night between Chairman Victor Robertson and F. J. Martin of the Lower Merrow Improvement Club. With them were present to discuss past and present municipal and political affairs in Berkeley, the president of the board, and the president of the club.

Martin then accused Robertson of being unduly friendly toward the present administration.

Martin had charged extravagance on the part of the council and school department, after which Robertson referred to the school board and the school as the Hodghead administration. Martin declared that this club was composed of supporters of the present administration regime, and that it gave a biased report.

ENDORSE WOLFE BILL

The Wolfe consolidation bill was endorsed in a resolution introduced by E. Pfaff of the North Grove Improvement Club, which was adopted without opposition.

Another resolution was adopted which asks for a separate senatorial district for Berkeley under the new legislative apportionment.

The committee appointed to frame an ordinance and prepare a initiative proposition for the city of Berkeley on taxes and gas rates, is composed of Stacey W. Gibbs and C. A. Sherman of the North Grove Improvement Club.

RAILWAYS GIVE WAGE INCREASE

Dispatchers, Train and Roadmasters Granted 10 per Cent Advance.

SPOKANE, Wash., March 11.—One of the most sweeping increases in wages made by railroads in years without threat of strike, was made known today when notices were received that the Northern Pacific and the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railroad had given their dispatchers, trainmasters and roadmasters ten per cent increases in pay for which a demand was made several months ago, effective March 1.

It is expected that other roads will follow suit within the next few days. The other railroads that have been asked to give the additional wage are the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company, Great Northern, Spokane International and Empire, and the Spokane and International. It is estimated that 2000 men through-

Girl Declares Father Selected Her Husband Who Soon Deserted Her.

It is said that the girl, who was thirteen years old at the time of her marriage to Albert Burrell in 1908, was deserted by him two weeks later. Since that time she has met Weiss and as the result of his courtship the two now desire to marry.

Weiss has consulted attorneys in behalf of the girl. At the time of her first marriage her husband was ten years her senior.

SCORE KILLED BY GREAT SNOWSLIDES

List of Dead in Nevada Storm Growing Daily; Three Victims in California.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., March 11.—The list of dead and missing in snowslides at Jordan, Lundy and Masonic, in western Mono county California, has reached a total of seventeen.

In the canyons above Masonic and Lundy, where there are numerous mining properties on the sides of the precipitous mountains, it is feared that there have been many more casualties. Telephonic communication with these points has been despatched, but more than a score of gigantic slides have been reported within the past twenty-four hours.

Yesterday four men trying to penetrate the mass of debris that covers the site of the power house of the Hydro-Electric Company at Jordan, fourteen miles from Bodie, were caught by another slide and instantly killed.

Jasper Parrot, who for years lived as a hermit in his cabin about a mile above Lundy, is missing, and his house has been destroyed. He is probably dead.

MINERS KILLED.

D. C. Knowlton was killed by one of the slides, and Chris Christensen, a miner, is believed to have been killed. At Masonic, Sam Smith, the former postmaster, was killed by a slide.

Early this morning the men who have been fighting the snow over the summit of the White mountains repaired the tracks on one of the timberline lines, and the mines and mills of Goldfield, Silver Peak, Tonopah, Rhyolite and Ingermeyer points were started after a shutdown of sixty hours.

The blizzard is decreasing in violence in the White mountains and on the western slope of the Sierras, but in Goldfield a heavy snow is falling.

THREE MEET DEATH.

NEVADA CITY, March 11.—A rider from Downsville sent a dispatch from Brandy City stating that snowslides in the vicinity of the former place have killed at least three men and probably more, during the recent storm. A great slide yesterday at Sheep canyon carried away the cabin of John Tournay, killing him, and the buildings of the Gold Point mine, killing the keeper, whose name is unknown. Neither body has been recovered, and it is believed they are too deep in the mass of debris brought down by the avalanche to be found. Fifty men are digging in the canyon several hundred feet below in the hopes of finding the remains.

At the Monte Cristo mine, above Downsville, John Beal was killed by a heavy slide which damaged the property of the mine. A report that the buildings of the Keystone mine near Sierra City were swept away with at least one fatality has not been confirmed. All wires are down and news is slow in coming out. On the Goodyear Bar grade many slides have taken place, blocking the road and doing much damage.

Waterfront News NEW TUG OWL UNDERGOES TEST

Alaska Packers Craft to be Sent North for Towing Vessels.

Much interest was evinced yesterday along the waterfront over the trial of the new Alaska packers' tug the Owl, which was sent out for the first time with experts aboard to test her. Captains Holsey and Norwood were also on board, and the tug made several trips up and down the estuary before being taken back to the Alaska packers' yards at the foot of Paru street. She was built at these yards and will be taken north to the salmon fisheries on the Star of Alaska from San Francisco. The tug is fitted with a 220-horse-power Standard gasoline engine and will be used for towing vessels in the cannery activities.

Monday morning a heavy force of men working on the Union line, Averett, Captain Evans, at San Francisco. The steamer is undergoing a general overhauling. She runs between San Francisco and Australia and New Zealand ports. It is probable that another vessel will be placed on her run until the repairs are completed.

The steam schooner Catherine, Captain Jorgenson, docked at Long wharf yesterday with 55,000 feet of lumber from the Columbia river. The Fulton, Captain Jacobson, also docked at this wharf with a like amount of lumber from Mendocino. The Arctic is at Long wharf with 60,000 feet of lumber. Captain Lindner brought her from Port Bragg. The Diamond discharged two cars of salt yesterday at Long wharf from Alameda.

HAIR HEALTH If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble, Take Advantage of This Offer.

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if we were not certain that it would do all we claim it will. Should our entire business carry away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

Therefore, when we assure you that if your hair is beginning to unnaturally fall out or if you have any scalp trouble, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness, you may rest assured that we know what we are talking about.

Out of one hundred test cases Rexall "93" Hair Tonic gave entire satisfaction in ninety-three cases. It has been proved that it will grow hair even on bald heads, and, of course, the baldness had not existed for so long a time that the follicles were the roots of the hair, had not become absolutely lifeless.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is vastly different from other similar preparations. We believe that it will do more than any other human agency toward restoring the hair growth and hair health. It is not greasy, and will not gum the scalp or hair, or cause permanent stain. It is pleasant to use as pure cold water.

Our faith in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we ask you to try it on our positive guarantee that your money will be cheerfully refunded without question or quibble if it does not do as we claim. Certainly we offer no stronger argument. It comes in two sizes, price 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at The Owl Drug Company, Inc., Tenth and Washington, Thirteenth and Broadway and Sixteenth and San Pablo.

HERE IS A REAL DYSPEPSIA CURE

Settles Your Out-of-Order Stomach and Ends All Indigestion Five Minutes Later.

The question as to how long you are going to continue to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapiesin. If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapiesin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and besides what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapiesin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent box of Pope's Diapiesin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

CHICAGO'S DEATH RATE ON INCREASE

Heart Failure, Cancer and Bright's Disease Show Starting Gain.

CHICAGO, March 11.—Chicago's death rate is increasing, despite scientific advancement toward prevention of germ diseases. This is the conclusion reached by the city health department and discussed in the quarterly report which was completed yesterday.

Revised figures gives Chicago's death rate for 1910 at 16.21 a thousand, which is smaller than that of the larger cities, although it is the highest death rate in Chicago since 1907.

Death from diphtheria, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough and scarlet fever were reduced in the last ten years to a minimum, but the gain was in death by heart disease, cancer and Bright's disease.

Health Commissioner Evans lays the responsibility for the increasing death rate to lack of appropriate measures properly to carry on the work of the department.

Warning to Railroad Men.
Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroad work. Geo. E. Bell, 639 Third street, Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroad work left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley's Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley's Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Wishart's drug store, corner 10th and Washington Sts.

40 TRUNKS HELD BY INSPECTORS

Officials Suspect the Contents Have Been Undervalued by Milliners and Dressmakers

NEW YORK, March 11.—Collector of the Port William Loeb, Jr., has determined to have a closer watch kept on the influx of dressmakers and milliners with spring styles from Paris. In accordance with his order, 100 trunks, the property of forty tradeswomen who have arrived from abroad, are under guard at the supervisor's store today, where a more thorough overhauling will be made than was possible when the inspectors went through the trunks on the piers.

Customs officials say that the valuation totaling about $100,000, which the owners placed on the trunks, will be shown to be far short of the real values. Two fashionable dressmakers, Miss Ella Croker and Miss D. T. White, have already been penalized for alleged undervaluation.

A Mother's Sarguard.
Foley's Honey and Tar for the children. Is best and safest for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and bronchitis. No opiates. Wishart's drug store, corner 10th and Washington Sts.
